

K-LOve is the only station I will ever listen to. If you take it away, then you are taking away a part of God's mission. He uses this station to send out His love and His word so that people will know what He has done for them. Please do not take this station away because many people would not know God or be able to serve God.